

Sealed Knot – Battle Re-enactment Saturday 23 – Monday 25 May 2009

The event will be open at 11.00am and close at 5.00pm.

Adult £10, Child £6, Family (2 adults and up to three children below the age of 16) £25

From Saturday 23rd until Monday 25th May Battle will come daily to Loseley park. Re-enactors from different periods will give displays of drill, partake in skirmishing and the whole event will culminate in a large English Civil War Battle, where hundreds of soldiers will fight it out amongst the smoke from muskets and cannon. The event is being organised by the Sealed Knot Society which now has 40 years of experience and have been involved in Civil War events all over the country. The event is ideal for all ages for as well as a programme of displays throughout the day there will be a living history camp where members of the society will demonstrate how the people following an army lived, areas to refresh yourself with food and drink and you could even come to our recruiting tent where children will be drilled, with mini pikes and muskets and adults can sign up for future battles, fighting for the King.
